

Ship's Crew Role Description

Role Title	Artist
Purpose of role	To record the ship build using different artforms
What you will be doing	Artistry might include: Creating supporting art materials to represent and assist the project. Drawing or painting artistic interpretations to help represent the ship prior to it being built Drawings and paintings may be used in social media, on the website, within historical documentation and to design merchandise for example
Skills, experience and qualities needed	Ability to represent still life in a way that is appreciated by others Ability to create accurate drawings and representations Ability to interpret historic records and convert information into an artistic form
When and where	Volunteer days and times are negotiable The Ship's Company operates from: The Longshed Tide Mill Lane Woodbridge Suffolk, IP12 1FP, UK
Support offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Full induction covering the working arrangements in the Longshed - All Ship's Crew members are covered by appropriate insurance - Role specific training
What you could get out of it	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You can develop new skills and put some existing skills into good use - You can connect with a wider community of people with similar interests - You can be part of a broad social network - You can be part of a unique historic project
Other relevant information	Applicants will initially be contacted by email to arrange a short telephone conversation or meeting prior to any commitment by either party. Applicant will need to use own equipment
What to do if you are interested	To complete an application form either complete this link or go to the Ship's Company website www.saxonship.org/getting-involved/volunteer where you will find the same application link.

Please address any queries to contact@saxonship.org