

Ship's Crew Role Description

Role Title	Boatbuilder
Purpose of role	To assist the shipwrights with building the saxon ship and/or one of the experimental models
What you will be doing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - working as a team to build the anglo saxon ship and associated models - helping to manipulate and manoeuvre the wood so that it can be worked on - using traditional methods to turn trees into component parts - making the associated tools and props required to build an ancient ship - contributing to the maintenance of a safe and tidy workspace
Skills, experience and qualities needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - able to work under instruction as part of a team - good attention to detail - familiarity with clinker boatbuilding and modern building practices - physical ability to take part in potentially heavy manual work - ability to work with other volunteers to ensure all aspects of the project are delivered
When and where	Volunteer days and times are negotiable The Ship's Company operates from: The Longshed Tide Mill Lane Woodbridge Suffolk, IP12 1FP, UK
Support offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Full induction covering the working arrangements in the Longshed - All Ship's Crew members are covered by appropriate insurance - Role specific training
What you could get out of it	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You can develop new skills and put some existing skills into good use - You can connect with a wider community of people with similar interests - You can be part of a broad social network - You can be part of a unique historic project
Other relevant information	Applicants will initially be contacted by email to arrange a short telephone conversation or meeting prior to any commitment by either party.

What to do if you are interested	To complete an application form either complete this link or go to the Ship's Company website www.saxonship.org/getting-involved/volunteer where you will find the same application link.
---	---

Please address any queries to contact@saxonship.org