

Ship's Crew Role Description

Role Title	Research Assistant
Purpose of role	To assist the lead researcher with historical and archeological research in relation to the Sutton Hoo Ship
What you will be doing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - analysing and evaluating relevant historical and current information - conducting literature reviews and comparisons - preparing interview and research criteria to elicit the information required to build the ship - Analysing and documenting responses received in relation to research requests - responding to questions posed by other volunteers and the general public
Skills, experience and qualities needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - keen attention to detail - an inquisitive mind - persuasion and persistence to keep going until answers are found - an ability to weigh up both sides of an argument and present a balanced review - excellent interpersonal skills to develop relationships with other volunteers, historians and archeologists
When and where	Volunteer days and times are negotiable The Ship's Company operates from: The Longshed Tide Mill Lane Woodbridge Suffolk, IP12 1FP, UK
Support offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Full induction covering the working arrangements in the Longshed - All Ship's Crew members are covered by appropriate insurance - Role specific training
What you could get out of it	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - You can develop new skills and put some existing skills into good use - You can connect with a wider community of people with similar interests - You can be part of a broad social network - You can be part of a unique historic project

Other relevant information	Applicants will initially be contacted by email to arrange a short telephone conversation or meeting prior to any commitment by either party.
What to do if you are interested	To complete an application form either complete this link or go to the Ship's Company website www.saxonship.org/getting-involved/volunteer where you will find the same application link.

Please address any queries to contact@saxonship.org